Weymouth. Dec 14th 1846

Dear Caroline,

I send Lizzie's gown. Marie says you must hire Mrs Irish one day to make it as there is too much here to be done to permit of any sewing. I enclose what letter I have from sundry people & that will give you such news as I can write. We are all well, & at present there is a prospect of getting through. All the boxes are marked save the Carlisle - Dublin & Exeter are to come per next Steamer.

Edmund goes to day to Philadelphia.

He & J. C. Vaughan, the late American have just gone from here, the latter a very agreeable man. Mrs C. is better.

We have sent Abel'm $200 worth of the new things. We have more by far than ever. All well at Weymouth.

We will send you notes by the express to send round in N. B.

Ms.A.9.2.22.137

You had better bring (Deborah) your spotted muslin, as I think you have yesterday I formally asked Lucia to ~~have~~ have up with her the 13th.

I should think you might arrange that one of you at least could stay on till the 13th & the rest come down.

Keep well, which is what I make the main chance here, & yet we are going through deep waters.

No more.

Yrs ever

A. W. W.

Take good care of the letter I send — And bring all the letters you have from Henry or he (Downer) when you come. You will find one thing you like —
